

Submissions for call for papers, Session IV of the Annual Congress of the IAPL, Örebro 2024

Criteria: (i) Approach to the main theme of the Congress and the topic of Session IV;
(ii) Innovation and creativity; (iii) Reasoning and originality; (iv) Argumentation, clarity and coherence of the content.

N°) Name	Title etc	Institution	Paper	E-mail
----------	-----------	-------------	-------	--------

Sub-session A

Chair: Senior lecturer, LL.D. Henrik Bellander

1) Isabel Alexandre	Assistant Professor, PhD in Legal Sciences, Civil Procedure Law	Faculdade de Direito da Universidade de Lisboa, Portugal	The surprisingly lasting influence of Portuguese civil procedural law in China	ialexandre@fd.ulisboa.pt
4) Simona Cammarata	PhD Student in Legal Sciences	University of Pisa, Italy	Recognition of Islamic repudiation decisions: the “ordre public procedural” as a refrain to impose forum’s values?	simona.cammarata@phd.unipi.it
10) Scott Dodson	James Edgar Hervey Chair in Litigation, Geoffrey C. Hazard Jr. Distinguished Professor of Law, Director, Center for Litigation and Courts	UC Law – SF (formerly UC Hastings Law), University of California Law, San Francisco, California, USA	Transcultural Courts	dodsons@uclawsf.edu

19) Stefanos Karameros	Ass. Prof. Dr. Procedural Law	Aristotle University Law School of Thessaloniki, Greece	Religious Diversity and the Influence in Proceedings – Especially the Implementation of Sharia (Muslim Law) by the Mufti Courts in Greece	karameros@hotmail.com
-------------------------------	-------------------------------	---	---	-----------------------

Sub-session B

Chair: Prof Eric Bylander

5) Valentina Capasso	Adjunct Professor in Civil Procedural Law/ Tenure-track Research Fellow in Civil Procedural Law, Joint Ph.D. in Civil Procedural Law and Private Law, Doctor Europaeus	LUISS Guido Carli University, Roma/ Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II, Napoli, Italy	Assessing the need for cultural expertise in civil proceedings: from Court's discretion to the duty to supplement the judge's extra-legal knowledge	valentina.capasso@unina.it
15) Lucilla Galanti	Ph.D., Associate professor, Adjunct professor (RtdB), Researcher in civil procedural law	Department of Legal Studies, University of Florence, Florence, Italy	Cultural Differences within the Rule of Evidence: "Cultural Facts" and the Burden of Proof	lucilla.galanti@unifi.it
16) Leandro Giannini	Chair Professor of Procedural Law, Head of the Institute of Procedural Law	Faculty of Law, University of La Plata, Argentina	Polarization, precedent and rule of law	lgiannini@gmail.com

30) Francesca Ferrari	Associate Professor of Civil Procedure Law	DIECO Dept., Insubria University, Varese, Italy	Utilization of Artificial Intelligence (AI) in Judicial Processes: Fostering Disparity or Enhancing Access to Justice?	francesca.ferrari@uninsubria.it
------------------------------	--	---	--	---------------------------------

Sub-session C

Chair: Senior lecturer, LL.D. Erik Björling

8) Phillipe Cupertino Salloum e Silva	Professor of Civil Procedural Law, PhD in Law; Coordinator of popular legal advice projects for traditional communities and peoples (Indigenous, Quilombolas and Roma).	Federal University of Jataí, Goiás, Brazil.	Federal Prosecution Service in the Promotion of Access to Justice for the Quilombola Community of Cedro (Goiás, Brazil)	phillipe.silva@ufj.edu.br
14) Helena Patrícia Freitas	Lawyer, PhD in Procedural Law, Professor	Faculdade Mineira de Direito, Pontifícia Universidade Católica de Minas Gerais, Coração Eucarístico, Belo Horizonte, Brasil	Pluriversal Processes: From Recognition of Cultural Diversities to the Sustainability of Decisions	helenapfreitas@gmail.com

25) Guilherme Sokal	Master of Laws (LL.M.), Yale Law School (U.S.). Master's degree in Procedural Law, Invited lecturer on civil procedure in Brazilian universities.	Yale Law School (U.S.). Master's degree in Procedural Law, Rio de Janeiro State University-UERJ (Brazil).	The growth and hindrances of indigenous courts in America	sokal@uol.com.br
27) Wannes Vandebussche	Assistant professor of civil procedure	Ghent University, Belgium	The role of apologies in the Western legal tradition: bridging two legal cultures?	Wannes.Vandebussche@UGent.be

Sub-session D

Chair: Associate professor Katalin Kelemen

13) Elizabeth Fernandez	Lawyer, PhD, Assistant Professor	Faculty of Law, University of Minho, Braga, Portugal	Multicultural Collegiate Courts: The Challenge of Harmonisation	ef@elizabethfernandez.pt
17) Viktória Harsági	Professor, Dr., Chair of Civil Procedure Law/ Lecturer	Pázmány Péter Catholic University/ Andrassy Gyula German Speaking University, Budapest, Hungary	On the border of cultures – Supplement for understanding Hungarian separate solutions	harsagi.viktoria@jak.ppke.hu

21) Edoardo Piermattei	Dr., Ph.D. Candidate in Legal Studies,	University of Bologna, Italy	International Commercial Courts in The Special Economic Zones: An Anatomy of 'Mixed Jurisdictions'	edoardo.piermattei3@unibo.it
28) Anna Waldenström	Lecturer of Procedural Law, PhD	Gothenburg University, Sweden	Cultural Differences' Impact on Civil Procedure: Presentation of Comparative Study of Cultural Differences and Evidence Law	anna.waldenstrom@law.gu.se

Sub-session E Sub-sesión en Español

– Presidente: Prof. Luca Passanante (Chair: Prof Luca Passanante)

6) María José Capelo &amp; María Victoria Mosmann	Profesora asociada/ Profesora titular a cargo	Universidade de Coimbra, Portugal/ Universidad Católica de Salta, Argentina	[Equal access to justice: the need to protect vulnerable persons (the vulnerability factor)]	mjcapelo@fd.uc.pt & mvmosmann@gmail.com
7) Elisabet Cueto Santa Eugenia	Assistant Lecturer in Procedural Law	Comillas Pontifical University, Madrid, Spain	[Particularities of Spanish criminal proceedings in the light of its cultural idiosyncrasies: Analysis of the figure of the	ecueto@icade.comillas.edu

			'examining magistrate'.]
12) Jesús Ezurmendia &amp; María de los Ángeles González	Dr. Faculty Member/ Dra., Ass. Professor	Departamento de Derecho Procesal, Facultad de Derecho, Universidad de Chile, Providencia, Santiago de Chile, Chile	[Evidence of Sexual Consent in Criminal Proceedings: Cultural Issues Relevant to the Construction of the Idea of Consensual Sexuality]	jezurmendia@derecho.uchile.cl & magonzalez@derecho.uchile.cl
31) Christian Delgado Suárez	Profesor de Derecho Procesal	La Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú	[Breaking the silence: For a judicial protection adequate to linguistic diversity the Peruvian experience]	delgado.suarez.christian@gmail.com